LOS ANGELES,
CALIFORNIA.

DOMESTIC POSTAGE.

FIRST CLASS.—Letters and all written matter, whether sealed or unsealed, and all other matter sealed, nailed, sewed, tied, or fastened in any manner, so that it cannot be easily examined, two cents per ounce or fraction thereof. A "Special Delivery" ten-cent stamp, when attached to a letter in addition to the lawful postage, entitles the letter to immediate delivery at, or within one mile of, any post office. Postal cards, one cent each ; with paid reply, two cents each.

SECOND CLASS.—All regular newspapers, magazines, and other periodicals issued at stated intervals, at least four times a year; the postage is one cent for each four ounces, payable by postage stamps.

THIRD CLASS.—Embraces printed books, pamphlets, circulars, engravings, lithographs, proof-sheets and manuscript accompanying the same, and all other matter of the same general character, and not having the character of personal correspondence. Circulars produced by hektograph or similar process, or by electric pen, are rated as third class. The limit of weight for mail matter of the third class is four pounds, except in the case of single books exceeding that weight. The rate of postage on mail matter of the third class is one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof.

FOURTH CLASS.—All mailable matter not included in the three preceding classes, which is so prepared for mailing as to be easily taken from the wrapper and examined. Rate, one cent per ounce or fraction thereof, except seeds, roots, cuttings, bulbs, plants and scions, which are one cent per two ounces. Limit of weight, 4 lbs. Full prepayment compulsory. Liquids, and other like injurious matter, not admitted, except under conditions which may be learned at any post office.

Direct your mail matter to a post-office, writing the name of the State plainly ; and if to a city, add the street and number or post-office box of the person addressed. Matter not addressed to a post-office cannot be forwarded. Write or print your name and address upon the upper left hand corner of all mail matter. This will insure its return if unpaid. If erroneously addressed and paid letter rates, it will be returned free ; and if mailed at other than letter rates, a notice will be sent informing you of postage required for return. If a letter, it will be returned free.

Register all valuable letters and packages. Registry fee, eight cents, which, with the postage, must be fully prepaid.

Hunted money. Some want 24 to!

29

O & S called on Brooks - Ben Hur. Luncheon there.
Saw Hegeman at the boys, who took me to man who may get money to P Z. Too good to be true.

30

Dean seemed unenthusiastic when he saw Lots & Lucas.
Met the Jameses & Parkers. He didn't buy "Home of Dickens" - yet he pretends to be literary! Took them to see Little Theater.

31

No money, but letter from Alice Bamsdell changing me from $50 to $75 a week.

September 14

Found just what we wanted at 2403 West 22nd. Splendid house with 10 rooms; garage, large front & very large back yard, fenced with 2 fig trees, beautiful lawns; 2 toilet baths, one very fine; 2 stationary tubs on large screen porch; large screened sleeping porch, quiet healthful locality; 2 blocks from car that passes theater door - 12 minute ride. $50.

Called on Mrs. Parker who goes east tomorrow with Mrs. Caley & the children & Mrs. Heaton who is going to Belgium for all.

Ernest arrived.

16

Leased house for 3 months.

October 7.

Dress rehearsal of Morning (23rd) in evening. Ordynski returned?

2nd dress rehearsal (24) in afternoon. Ordynski not pleased. Bamsdall asked him to take it over if I would consent. I did. He fired Ernest & put Kinsin in his place as Charles. He then took out work on it, & spent the evening on the first act. Bed at 1:30! Tal left here. (25) Performance postponed till Thursday the 12th.

3rd dress rehearsal (26) in p.m. Ordynski has changed the notary completely, altered scenes of business, added more scenes, & generally stirred things up. I don't like many of his ideas, but he's a great producer. Think I'll talk with Bamsdall about Ernest. Shall give

Saw Francis X. Bushman (in pictures) as Romeo. Words fail to describe the gent.

Doria lost Kostja - partly because she seemed too big for the part, partly because Adyinski was in a bad mood and is always hard to satisfy, but chiefly because she went to the part quite determined that she was too big to play it and because she wouldn't learn her lines. I'm sick over it, as it is a very

Monday, July 27, 1908

Thursday, Dec 20

Got up at 6:30 (good daylight), got breakfast for all, & went to work [redacted] on sleeping porch. Steady till 1, when & at lunch O had fixed. Back at once to porch, & worked till 2, when D went to woodcutting in canyon (very hard place). Worked till 6. Coming home, found O away. Got supper for myself & the children, read a little, & went to bed, dog tired & with pain in left chest. O returned about 11, & came to bed. I had at last been able to sleep. Presently wind came up, & began to blow the building before it. Got out & put clothes on it. Then 2 o'clock. Pain increased, then stopped. Almost asleep, when suddenly very violent pain. I cried out involuntarily.

Tuesday, July 28, 1908

Wednesday, July 29, 1908

20

I was wide awake, but she did not even ask what the matter was, [nor, suppose] she knew I was in pain, did she even put out her hand to touch me. The most beautiful women are the most cruel they can be; but I never thought a human being could show such great indifference. It was the final straw.

21

This morning I put the house for sale. It was built for a happy home. It is only a torture chamber.

Sat. 22

4 Hellands & C & I walked to Monterey. Lunched at Capitana on John. He & I walked back. Others rode with Nemone. Suffer here.

Thursday, July 30, 1908

Saturday 5

Went to Salinas & saw Judge Barden to get his help in landing P.O. Community suspects Hilliard. Long cry by Opal. Didn't get to sleep till 4.

Sunday 6

Impossible for O to be frugal, yet she hasn't come round. I suggested calling Dr McAdam. She objected. I asked if any other man — and she said I had a filthy mind! As if she'd never — O hell!

Went to the Jap gardens in Pacific with Mrs. Hilliard.

Moved out sleeping porch. C very ugly. I told her: "I got no thanks for building the sleeping porch but you talk to me abominably when I take a corner of it." And I added to O: "Same with the prairs. B got me thanks for buying X for you, but earned your everlasting hate when I had X sell X."

O left X Wilcox horse standing while she came into the house. X vanished. She walked a weary way, but couldn't find it. O was looking wood, & heard a rustling in the oaks below the wood. Sure enough, it was the horse, with the buggy minus X!

O came round last night.

10

Got 15 abalones.

11

Not well at all. Too hard work lately, & too much worry & discord, tho the O.O. business goes well.
